LAZ, DEFIANT, IGNORES HUERTA

Refuses to Obey Orders to Leave Mexico.

HE FACES COURT MARTIAL.

Remains in Vera Cruz as All Other Members of His Party Are Jailed by Huerta—Determined to Be on Mexican Soil When Election is Held—Situation Grows Darker.

Vera Cruz, Oct. 24.—General Felix Diaz has faced a difficult situation. A general of the Mexican army in active service, he was under orders of his commander, General Huerta, to proceed to Havana aboard the Mexican cruiser Zaragoza. He is a candidate for president and to go to Havana before the elections, set for next Sunday, would eliminate him. The Mexican constitution provides that a president must be on Mexican soil when elected.

To refuse to obey an ostensibly harmless military order that looked singular on its face would make Diaz liable to arrest and court martial for insubordination. To go to Havana would cost him his chance for president.

Diaz Party Jailed by Huerta.

Diaz was still at the home of his brother-in-law, Attorney Alcala, where he went immediately on landing from the Corcovado. He had refused up to then to obey Huerta's order to quit Mexico and talked of a plan to go to Mexico City by special train.

Officials were urged to deport three Italians Giuseppe Costanzo, Giuseppe Guichete and Franchesco Constanzo were arrested on suspicion when they landed from the Corcovado. They had bank drafts for $45,000 and much gold.
It was suspected that they were anarchists, possibly hired to assassinate Huerta.

Local representatives of the central government expressed indignation at the action of the German naval officers from the cruiser Hertha who went aboard the Corcovado before Diaz landed. They declared that the German "meddling" was unwarranted.
The commander of the Hertha is said to have explained that, as the Hertha is a German steamer, it was no more than courtesy for the German navy to keep an eye on her passengers at a time when there was so much talk of violence.

MRS. EATON TO TAKE STAND AND TELL STORY

Widow, Accused of Murder,
to Bare Life History.

Plymouth, Mass., Oct. 24.—Mrs. Jennie May Eaton, accused of slaying her husband, Rear Admiral Eaton, is going to take the stand and tell her own story to the jury. This became known for the first time when Attorney William A. Morse, senior counsel for Mrs.
Eaton, announced that the accused widow is to testify in her own defense.

Attorney Morse said: "Mrs. Eaton will take the stand and tell her own story to the jury. I do not know now whether we will call Mrs. June Keyes as a witness. That will depend entirely on developments. If we feel that the occasion demands it we will common her. Our case will take about four days."

Attorney Morse's announcement came just before the opening of the defense.
The opening speech will be made by Attorney Francis Geogan of Mrs.
Eaton's counsel. He expected to take up an hour outlining the defense. As soon as he finishes the first witness will be called for the defense.

Ralph P. Keyes, who married June, eldest daughter of Mrs. Eaton, has testified that he had heard Mrs. Eaton say her husband had "put away" more than 100 men on his ship with poison.

"MRS. PANKHURST SELFISH."

Declares Dr. Anna Shaw, Criticizing Millicent's Visit to This Country.
Washington, Oct. 24.—Washington
suffragists were much exercised over the declaration of Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, suffragist leader, in an address here that "the visit of Mrs. Pankhurst to this country was selfish and harmful to the cause."

Dr. Shaw declared that with ten campaigns on the suffragists could not afford to have their attention distracted by the leader of the militants and added that militancy had done much to injure the cause, not only in England, but in this country.

WEST SIDE WEDDING

Ridgway Young Man and DuBois
Young Woman Married.

Thursday morning Wrin L. Lund,
of Ridgway, and Miss Lois Klare, of DuBois, were married by Dr. Bender at the home of R. G. Ross and wife, on the West Side. Miss Klare is a niece of Mr. Ross.

DEATHS OF A DAY.

Rev. Edward J. Gleason S. J., professor of philosophy at Loyola university and lecturer on legal ethics, died in Chicago.
He was once president of St. Louis university.

Noel Bassett, into whose veins three injections of blood from his father, William Robert Bassett, a New York broker and his stepmother were made, died of typhoid fever.

John Washington Burtis, eighty-four years old, a lifelong resident of Port Washington, N. Y., died there. He was a bachelor and twenty years ago retired from the farm which he recently sold to a syndicate.

Ludwig Max Goldberger, commercial
privy counselor and recently retired president of the permanent exposition commission, died in Berlin. He consistently opposed German participation in the Panama-Pacific exposition.

Benjamin B. Stevens, general manager for Klaw & Erlanger and one of the most widely known and popular men in the theatrical business in this country, was stricken with apoplexy in New York and died a few minutes later.

EVANGELIST HAMILTON TALKS TO THE POINT

His Discourses in the Tabernacle Full of Profit

One of the largest crowds during the entire series of meetings at the Glen Richey meetings greeted the evangelist in the tabernacle Thursday evening. Over 600 persons were present. Prof. Leonard's solo was entitled "The Old-Fashioned Faith."

Evangelist Hamilton chose as his subject "Hell." Among other things he said:

"Will a just God send a man to hell?" No; a just God will not, but an unjust man, with some, or reason, or decency, will send himself there.
We will go to the place we are fitted for. Some people will go home to the upper glory and those of a baser nature will be confined in the lower bogs of the bottomless pit.

I do not believe there is a man down in the pit with a pair of tongs trying to keep up a corn cob fire, but I hope to show you before I get through that I have a clear conception of what hell is like.

"The rich man's hell consisted of first, in what he saw; second, in what he heard; third, in what he desired; fourth, in what he remembered." Under these headlines the evangelist recounted some of the experiences of life which paralleled the descriptions in the New Testament of everlasting retribution. He appealed to his hearers, on the argument of probability, if for no other reason, to accept the gospel invitation.

Some eight or ten persons came forward at the close of the service and a short prayer meeting was held after the sermon.

The subject for tonight will be
"Eternity."

Will Play State College.

The Clearfield High School football team left today at 1:15 on P. R.
R. for State College, where they will play with State College High School team.

Her Brother Killed.

Frank Smith, brother of Mrs. E. T.
Pooler, of Clearfield, was killed by falling down an elevator shaft at one of the school buildings in Altoona Wednesday. Mr. Smith was in charge of the building as janitor.

No Dance Tonight.

On account of the very bad weather the dance which was to have been held tonight has been postponed until next Monday night.

Your Vote Solicited.

Having been nominated for the office of Tax Collector of Clearfield Borough, I solicit the votes of all citizens. If elected I will perform the duties of the office to the best of my ability, and promise that every one will receive fair and impartial treatment.

HENNESSY DARES M'CALL TO SUE

Ex-Governor Sulzer's Graft
Hunter Stirs Up Campaign.

HIS SERIOUS ACCUSATIONS.

Intimates That Judge McCall Paid
$35,000 For Nomination—Says Only Way He Can Prove His Case Is to Go in the Courts and Place Witnesses Before Grand Jury.

New York, Oct. 24.—Action within a short time in the controversy between Edward E. McCall, the Tammany candidate for mayor of this city, and John Hennessy, who was William Sulzer's agent, appears to be inevitable. Judge McCall has openly stated that he has been slandered, vilified and lied about by Hennessy.

"If I've been lying about McCall," said Hennessy in a speech, "let him try to prove it. The only way I can conclusively prove what I say about McCall is to get him in a court of law, where he can be put under oath. If he is anxious for that I'll promise to libel him in any way he desires so that he may start a criminal suit. He can't take action any too quickly to suit me."

Hennessy also charged that Samuel
A. Beardsley, the agent of the late Anthony N. Brady, gave Charles F. Murphy $25,000 in cash last fall that was not accounted for on the list of contributions furnished to the secretary of state by Treasurer McLean of the state Democratic committee. He defies Murphy to say he did not get Beardsley's $25,000, which Sulzer says
he refused to take.

Hennessy in his speech, brought Charles F. Murphy still further in the limelight. He told the 2,000 persons who heard him speak in Sulzer's Harlem Casino that he had seen a note for $35,000 signed by another supreme court justice. And he added that this $35,000 note had been signed this year.

Wants to Indict Sulzer.

Were it not for the fear that anything savoring of persecution of Sulzer would help him at this time Tammany wouldn't hesitate a minute about having him indicted for offenses charged in his impeachment. In fact, the Tammany bosses may find it necessary to take some drastic action if Sulzer keeps on stirring up the east side.

The graft hunter under Governor
Sulzer had still another story to tell.
It had to do with the testimony of Duncan W. Peck, state superintendent of public works, who testified before
the court of impeachment that Sulzer had asked him "to forget" that he had made a campaign contribution to the governor.

PANKHURST PAPER REPUTED INDECENT

Efforts to Suppress Sale of Suffragette in New York.

New York, Oct. 24.—Police Commissioner Waldo began an investigation of the sale of the Suffragette, the millions' paper which was sold by young girls at Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst's meeting in Madison Square Garden Tuesday night. The commissioner detailed Lieutenant Kerb, who is in charge of one of the squads at head quarters, to visit the suffrage headquarters in the city and other places where the paper might be on sale and try to purchase a copy.

Lieutenant Kerb was also instructed to gather what information he could about those who are offering the paper for sale and to find out if any attempt is being made to publish the paper in New York. While Commissioner Waldo knows that the paper at present is being published in France and copied to this country, he believes it possible that an attempt may be made to publish it in New York if the demand for the paper should exhaust the supply brought over from France.

Commissioner Waldo said that as soon as Lieutenant Kerb has made his report copies of the Suffragette and what other evidence has been gathered would be submitted to Chief Magistrate McAdoo. Mr. Waldo does not know whether or not warrants can be issued, but he said that Magistrate McAdoo would decide that question.

ANNUAL BANQUET OF SUSQUEHANNA LODGE

Splendid Menu and Eloquent Addresses on Program

Susquehanna lodge, No. 96 F & A.
M., of Clearfield, held its second annual banquet in the lodge rooms on Reed street Thursday evening.
About 60 persons were present to partake of the good things set before them and listen to addresses. An excellent menu was served and the banqueters partook with relish of the inviting viands and relishes.
Addresses were made by Prof. H.
Linger, of Altoona, Rev. O. T. Davia of Lewisburg, and District Grand Deputy Daniel Keith, of Altoona, all of whom were listened to with great attention.

Members of the order were present
from DuBois, Punxsutawney, Cur-wensville and Philipsburg. At a late hour the banqueters left for their homes, declaring the affair the best that they had ever participated in.

Returned to His Home.

Newton Fisher, who left Clearfield 20 years ago and who is located in North Carolina, accompanied the body of his mother Mrs. M. A. Livington from the South this week.
Mr. Fisher left for his Southern home today. He is now a singer with a noted evangelist and was at one time with Sam Jones.

THAW INDICTED FOR CONSPIRACY

Grand Jury Finds True Bill Against Prisoner.

JEROME WINS BIG POINT.

Governor of New Hampshire Will Be Asked to Order Slayer of Sanford White Sent Back to New York—Defense Pleaded That Insane Man Couldn't Be Guilty of Conspiracy.

New York, Oct. 24.—Harry K. Thaw, slayer of Stanford White, was indicted by a grand jury of the supreme court on a charge of conspiracy in connection with his escape from Matteawan.
On this indictment the governor of New Hampshire will be asked to send Thaw back to New York state.

Bench warrants were issued for Richard Butler, Michael O'Keefe, Roger Thompson and Edward Duffy, the chauffeurs, charging them with aiding in the conspiracy by which Thaw made his escape.

Under the designation of Governor Glynn the jury began an investigation into charges of conspiracy.

Counsel for Thaw maintained the inquiry should not be made because Thaw has been adjudged legally insane and therefore could not be indicted on a charge of conspiracy. Their contention was combated by William Traversers Jerome, who has been appointed a special deputy attorney-general.

The special object of the inquiry, it is said, was to procure the indictment of Thaw for use in the extradition proceedings in New Hampshire. Jerome had summoned more than twenty persons to testify before the grand jury.

Interest in the case was divided between this city and Concord. Thaw has received a letter from his chief attorney, ex-Governor William A.
Stone of Pennsylvania, hinting at possible strong arm methods that may be used by Jerome and the New York forces in the event that Governor Feller fails to issue an order of extradition.

Attorney Stone told Thaw he had discovered what might be a Jerome plot to seize Thaw in Concord with Pittsburgh gangsters.

JOKES AS DEATH NEARS.

Man Who Took Bichloride Tablet in Happy Frame of Mind.

New York, Oct. 24.—With certain death awaiting him at the end of a few more days Isaac Levy, the clothing merchant who accidentally swallowed four bichloride of mercury tablets in his Brooklyn home on Sunday night, jokes and smiles at the prospect of what he believes to be a quick and sure recovery.

He still refuses to take seriously the death sentence which Dr. Jacob Sarnoff tells him is inevitable and talks hopefully of the day when he shall be
on his feet again a well man.

Levy's condition is unchanged. The poison in his system is gradually working its way into his kidneys. Dr. Sarnoff said that its effect upon the kidneys could already be noticed and that it was only a matter of two or three days before the mercury will have destroyed them.

DEATH PUT OFF FOR DINNER

Murderer Got Three Hours' Respite
From Gallows at Own Request.

Somerset, Pa., Oct. 24.—Death on the gallows was postponed three hours here by a chicken dinner when John Maus, former coachman for Harry K.
Thaw, got a respite that he might partake of a good meal.

Maus, who killed a mail carrier, Harrison Brown, while robbing him, was to have been hanged at 10 o'clock. He had been shamming insanity, but stopped long enough to ask for a good dinner. The sheriff at once postponed the execution until 1 o'clock, and a fat fowl went into the pot.

FORETOLD HIS DEATH.

Asiologist Passes Away Seven Hours
After Time He Had Predicted.

Baltimore, Oct. 24.—Joseph Westkam, sixty-five years old, a student of astrology, told his daughter, Mrs. W.
C. Seifried, several weeks ago that he believed he would die before sundown on Oct. 22. He died a little over seven hours after the time he had predicted.
Westkam had been ill for several months. Three days ago his condition became critical.

Whirled Around by Wheel, Unhurt.
Chilfide, N. J., Oct. 24.—David Carroll got his clothing caught in a flywheel in a power house at Edgewater
and was whirled around till his clothing came off. He was not hurt.

The Weather.

Unsettled and probably rain, moderate easterly winds.

AN EIGHT HOUR DAY

Workingmen Urged to Vote for Proposed Amendment.

Patrick Gilday, president of District No. 2, U. M. W. A., urges every workingman in the district to vote for the amendment to the state constitution providing for the enactment of a law making eight hours a legal day's work on all public works, whether done by the state, county or city.

President Gilday says that the adoption of this amendment is of vast importance to the workingmen of Pennsylvania, and that all laborers who wish to improve their condition should support the amendment by voting "yes" in the square to the right of the words: "The general assembly shall not pass any local or special law, etc."

SOOTHES ARGENTINA.

Roosevelt Denies Rating Brazil First in
His Speech at Bahia.

Buenos Aires, Oct. 24.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt's Bahia speech has aroused the people of the Argentine republic. They object strongly to his declaration that the United States must be paramount in North America and Brazil in South America since they are the richest and greatest countries on the continent.

His cable denying that he made the statement attributed to him has just become public and is beginning to soothe the feelings of the people of this country.

COMING EVENTS.

General election, Nov. 4.
Dear Hunting season opens Nov. 10 closes Nov. 25.

Good evening! When in doubt put off housecleaning until next year.

A ONE TERM CANDIDATE.

Among the other reasons why Oscar Mitchell should be elected is the fact that, if elected, he will not ask for a second term. Mr. Mitchell will be satisfied with ten years of service on the bench, and at the end of his term, would be willing to give other members of the bar in Clearfield county a chance to enjoy the honors and emoluments of the office. There are quite a number of attorneys in this county, any one of whom would give entire satisfaction as an occupant of the bench, and Mr. Mitchell, when his term had expired, would not stand in the way of any other candidate.

The term of judge is ten years. The lawyer who is forty or fifty years of age stands a very poor chance of becoming judge in the county where two terms are given one man. Those who feel that one term, with a big salary, should be enough for any man, no matter what his qualifications, look with favor upon the candidacy of Oscar Mitchell, who will not ask a second term, if elected. In the minds of many people the one-term issue is a most important one, and this is why the vote for Oscar Mitchell will be much larger than his opponents imagine.

VOTE AS YOU PRAY

There are thousands of citizens of Clearfield county who pray that the liquor traffic may be driven out of the country. These people believe that crime, degeneracy, poverty and insanity are due to the excessive use of intoxicating liquors. It is certain that if no alcoholic drinks were sold in Clearfield county there would be more happy homes and less misery and destitution. Therefore, the people, who know the evils which flow from the use of liquors pray that the day may come when no more whiskey or beer is sold in the county.

Oscar Mitchell is pledged to aid in the work of reducing the number of places at which intoxicating drinks may be had. He promises to refuse to grant licenses to wholesale liquor dealers and to act in accordance with a majority of the citizens in the districts of the county relative to liquor licenses for hotels and saloons. If a hotel or saloon is not necessary in a community it will not be granted a license, should Mr. Mitchell be on the bench in this county. As judge, therefore, Mr. Mitchell would be willing to meet the wishes of those citizens who pray that the liquor license traffic may be destroyed.

In praying for the overthrow of the drink evil the people should not forget that praying alone will not accomplish this, to them, desired end. If they will vote as they pray, however, they will aid very materially in reducing the number of places where drink may be procured and thus remove to a great extent the temptations which now beset the young men who would not indulge in intoxicating drinks to their physical and mental harm. The watchword should be "vote as you pray," but the people who pray should not neglect or forget to vote for Oscar Mitchell.

Citizens of Clearfield should attend the good roads meeting in the court house this evening. There may be a difference of opinion regarding the advisability of authorizing the state to borrow fifty million dollars to build new highways, but no citizen is so well informed upon the subject that he cannot glean further information upon the matter. At the meeting tonight Charles E. Foote, who knows all about road making, will tell what it is proposed to do with the money that will be derived from the issuing of road bonds, and his address should be heard by the citizens of this county.

There is strong opposition to the bond issue among the grangers and others, and if Mr. Foote is able to explain away the causes of this opposition he will be able to convert many voters to his way of thinking. At any rate it will be well for citizens to attend this meeting and learn just what the state highway department is expected to do with this fifty million dollars which it is proposed to raise by a bond issue which the people are expected to approve at the November election. There is need of reliable information on the subject in order that the people may vote intelligently upon the proposed amendments to the state constitution authorizing the issue of bonds for good roads purposes.

Burgess Woodward is waiting for an official copy of the new automobile law, and promises to enforce its provisions as soon as he discovers what these are. There's some encouragement in that statement at any rate.

Oscar Mitchell is the only candidate for judge who has a real platform. And his platform is a good one for good people to stand upon.

Earle G. Boose asks the voters to elect him district attorney because he is competent and will conduct the affairs of the office in a satisfactory manner.

The Coming Maude.

Maude Muller one day, eating fudge, looked up and saw the county judge.

Maude was a pretty girl, all right. His honor fell in love at sight.

And when about a month had fled Maude promised that the judge should wed.

Then over the judge's pathway came a wealthy, proud and stately dame.

The judge then for ambition's sake Poor little Maude resolved to shake.

An ardent suitor came to Maude, Chalewoman of the county board.

"I'll get square," Maude said, "without fail."
So told her party her sad tale.
Judge had elected been in fall; In spring they voted his recall.
The haughty dame refused to wed. "You are no longer judge," she said.
This lesson had he learned, you bet: "Don't monkey with a suitor's bet."

Amazing Disrespect.

The reigning bore in Edinburg at one time was Professor L., and his favorite subject was the north pole. One day he met Jeffrey in a narrow lane and began instantly to talk of the north pole. Jeffrey in despair and out of all patience darted past him, exclaiming, "Hang the north pole!" Shortly after Professor L., boiling over with indignation, met Sydney Smith. "Oh, my dear fellow," said Sydney "never mind! No one minds what Jeffrey says, you know. He is a privileged person. He respects nothing—absolutely nothing. Why, you will scarcely credit it, but it is not more than a week since I heard him speak disrespectfully of the equator!"

Lawrence Duke, son of Brodie Duke, millionaire, was arraigned in Seattle, Wash., for manslaughter. His auto killed two men.

Counterfeiters plant with plates for five and ten dollar bills was found in the woods near Alexandria, La. James Cooks and son were seized.

Advertiser's Aim Is Satisfaction

By HOLLAND.

ONE of the biggest retail merchants in the world, with stores in two of America's largest cities, and who naturally is one of the largest advertisers in the world, insists that his advertisement writers confine themselves to strict truth, and any promise made by one of his clerks is considered to have been made personally by the head of the firm.

A woman bought a fine tablecloth, and after she had it home there was a slight imperfection found. It was nothing to affect the wear of the tablecloth, but she took it back, explaining that she had paid a high price for the article and that she had intended it for her "best." She was somewhat apologetic for returning a purchase with such a slight imperfection.

"You are a stranger in this city?" asked the floorwalker, and the woman nodded. "I thought so," he said. "You do not understand our system. Had you kept that tablecloth you would have done yourself and us an injustice. When you buy here you must be satisfied. If you are dissatisfied for any reason you are not fair to us unless you tell us and give us a chance to satisfy you."

That spirit is behind big advertisers everywhere. It is another reason for doing business with advertisers.

HYMN OF THE EARLY CHRISTIANS.

The rising sun bids us awake
And prayer to our Creator make.
Benedicamus Domino!

His hand hath kept us through the night
And led us safely to the light.
Benedicamus Domino!

Our tongues restrain we through the day
That, blameless, they at eve may pray.
Benedicamus Domino!

Our thoughts contain, our senses guard
We serve the vineyard of the Lord.
Benedicamus Domino!

All worldly appetites repress
And ever our Creator bless,
Benedicamus Domino!

Thus, daylight passed, to God on high Once more with hallowed lips we cry.
Benedicamus Domino!
—From Ave Maria.

JOHN A. HENNESSY.

Makes Bitter Attacks on Tammany and McCall, Candidate For Mayor.

© 1913 by American Press Association. John A. Hennessy continues to attack Charles P. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, and Edward J. McCall, the Tammany candidate for mayor of New York city. He declares them to be unworthy and declares he will welcome such action. Mr. Hennessy asserted that he had held in his hand a note for $5,000 which he intended was the price paid by Mr. McCall for his nomination as a candidate for the judgeship.

A Professional Love Letter Writer. In the American Magazine appears under the title "A Handy Man With the Pen" the confession of a man who is a professional writer of love letters after dinner speeches, obituary poetry, etc. The following is one of the stories he tells about writing love letters for a customer.

"One day last fall a handsome young man much embarrassed appeared and after some hesitation confessed that he had neglected his education and was corresponding with a young woman with whom he was very much in love. She was a college graduate and he desired to have his letters as well written as hers were so he wanted me to write them. I advised him to write simply and as he talked but he persisted and twice a week he came, informed me concisely and briefly what he wanted to say to her and I wrote the letters into them. He copied the letters himself, blushing frequently as he read what I had added in the way of sentiment. That young lady received some of the most wonderful love letters ever written. They were married during the winter."

Bengali and Its Language.

The people of Bengal number seventy millions and boast of perhaps the best culture in India at the present time. The language as a written language is only fifty years old. Though for over a thousand years it has been a dialect, there is in Indian history unfortunately no trace of Bengali having been an important literary tongue. The language originates from Sanskrit the mother tongue from which every other Indian language has borrowed its alphabet, grammar and vocabulary but unlike others Bengali never shrinks from gathering new materials. There are numerous Persian, French, Arabic and English words incorporated in it and the wonder of it is that, instead of having been degraded into some vulgar form like pidgin English, Bengali has become the most literary, scientific and perhaps the most philosophic of modern Indian languages. — Argonaut.

THE IDLE RICH.

The human scrap pile for which we have to pay is cluttered up, not alone with the paupers and the down and outs, but with the idle rich, who sit around luxurious hotels and watering places with nothing to do but overeat and sleep. I was astounded by the waste of human energy at the county institutions, but I am appalled when I think of that far greater waste of energy among those whose wants have been provided for and who have nothing to do but dress for dinner. We have 2,500 persons sitting with folded hands in our county institutions, content because their wants have been provided for. I could not help thinking of our wealthy outcasts in this connection. They are really beyond the pale of human effort, for they are doing nothing that is of good to anybody, not even to themselves. The idle wealthy are going on the scrap pile voluntarily. They are not only useless, but harmful. Somebody ought to wake them up and make them think. And this waste can be found at most any fashionable resort east and west. If we had a little help from those who can give help it might solve a lot of problems that put the poor wards of the county where they are. — President A. A. McCormick of Board of Charity Chicago.

Armory Interior Like Battleship. Washington, Oct. 24.—President Wilson and Secretary Daniels visited the District of Columbia naval militia battalion armory, which had been transformed to resemble the deck of a battleship.

No Reason to Work.

A large, slouchy colored man went shuffling down the road whistling like a lark. His clothes were ragged, and his shoes were out at the toes and heels, and he appeared to be in the depths of poverty for all his mirth.

As he passed a prosperous looking house a man stepped from the doorway and hailed him.

"Hey, Jim! I got a job for you. Do you want to make a quarter?"

"No," said the ragged one. "I done got a quarter."—Washington Star.

NEW YORK STOCKS.

Following London's Lead, Issues Decline Sharply at Opening.

New York, Oct. 21.—The speculative tone and price changes of the early trading were again ruled by the force of the London market before our opening. Declines reported in London were followed here with a substantial lowering of prices in the initial dealings, and the action of the market caused a further increase of confidence in those committed on the bear side.

A dragging tendency prevailed all through the first hour. London was a seller all through the list of international issues, the supply from that source being estimated at about 20,000 shares in the first half hour, and there was at the same time evidence of liquidation of speculative lines by houses with up-town connections. Brokers concerned in the trading said that the supply from both sources was easily absorbed. In government United States registered advanced one-eighth point, and the coupon is and registered and coupon 4 rose one-half point. Railway and other bonds were steady.

The tone held steady all through the late forenoon, there being an absence of pressure, which marked the initial dealing. Transactions, however, were almost wholly between professional room traders, and the slight price changes were without importance. Covering by the speculative element on the floor in small amounts was sufficient to hold prices firm at the range prevailing at the end of the first hour, but quotations generally were still substantially under yesterday's final figures.

HAZ, DEFIANT, IGNORES HUERTA

Refuses to Obey Orders to Leave Mexico.

HE FACES COURT MARTIAL.

Remains in Vera Cruz as All Other Members of His Party Are Jailed by Huerta—Determined to Be on Mexican Soil When Election is Held—Situation Grows Darker.

Vera Cruz, Oct. 24.—General Felix
H. was faced a difficult situation. A general of the Mexican army in active service, he was under orders of his commander, General Huerta, to proceed to Havana aboard the Mexican cruiser Zaragoza. He is a candidate for president and to go to Havana before the elections, set for next Sunday, would eliminate him. The Mexican constitution provides that a president must be on Mexican soil when elected.

To refuse to obey an ostensibly harmless military order that looked
singular on its face would make Diaz
liable to arrest and court martial for insubordination. To go to Havana would cost him his chance for president.

Diaz Party Jailed by Huerta.

Diaz was still at the home of his brother-in-law, Attorney Alcala, where
he went immediately on landing from
the Corcovado. He had refused up to then to obey Huerta's order to quit Mexico and talked of a plan to go to Mexico City by special train.

Officials were urged to deport three
Italians Giuseppe Costanzo, Giuseppe
Guichete and Franchesco Constanzo
were arrested on suspicion when they landed from the Corcovado. They had bank drafts for $45,000 and much gold.
It was suspected that they were anarchists, possibly hired to assassinate Huerta.

Local representatives of the central government expressed indignation at
the action of the German naval officers from the cruiser Hertha who went aboard the Corcovado before Diaz
landed. They declared that the German "meddling" was unwarranted.
The commander of the Hertha is said
to have explained that, as the Hertha
is a German steamer, it was no more than courtesy for the German navy to keep an eye on her passengers at a time when there was so much talk of
violence.

MRS. EATON TO TAKE STAND AND TELL STORY

Widow, Accused of Murder,
to Bare Life History.

Plymouth, Mass., Oct. 24.—Mrs. Jennie May Eaton, accused of slaying her husband, Rear Admiral Eaton, is going
to take the stand and tell her own
story to the jury. This became known for the first time when Attorney William A. Morse, senior counsel for Mrs.
Eaton, announced that the accused widow is to testify in her own defense.

Attorney Morse said: "Mrs. Eaton will take the stand and tell her own
story to the jury. I do not know now whether we will call Mrs. June Keyes as a witness. That will depend entirely on developments. If we feel that the occasion demands it we will common her. Our case will take about four days."

Attorney Morse's announcement came
just before the opening of the defense.
The opening speech will be made by Attorney Francis Geogan of Mrs.
Eaton's counsel. He expected to take up an hour outlining the defense. As soon as he finishes the first witness
will be called for the defense.

Ralph P. Keyes, who married June, eldest daughter of Mrs. Eaton, has testified that he had heard Mrs. Eaton say her husband had "put away" more than 100 men on his ship with poison.

"MRS. PANKHURST SELFISH."

Declares Dr. Anna Shaw, Criticizing Millicent's Visit to This Country.
Washington, Oct. 24.—Washington
suffragists were much exercised over the declaration of Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, suffragist leader, in an address
here that "the visit of Mrs. Pankhurst to this country was selfish and harmful to the cause."

Dr. Shaw declared that with ten campaigns on the suffragists could not afford to have their attention distracted by the leader of the militants
and added that militancy had done much to injure the cause, not only in England, but in this country.

Ridgway Young Man and DuBois
Young Woman Married.

Thursday morning Wrin L. Lund,
of Ridgway, and Miss Lois Klare,
of DuBois, were married by Dr. Bender at the home of R. G. Ross and
wife, on the West Side. Miss Klare is a niece of Mr. Ross.

DEATHS OF A DAY.

Rev. Edward J. Gleason S. J., professor of philosophy at Loyola university and
lecturer on legal ethics, died in Chicago.
He was once president of St. Louis university.

Noel Bassett, into whose veins three
injections of blood from his father, William Robert Bassett, a New York broker
and his stepmother were made, died of typhoid fever.

John Washington Burtis, eighty-four years old, a lifelong resident of Port Washington, N. Y., died there. He was a bachelor and twenty years ago retired from the farm which he recently sold to a syndicate.

Ludwig Max Goldberger, commercial
privy counselor and recently retired president of the permanent exposition commission, died in Berlin. He consistently opposed German participation in the Panama-Pacific exposition.

Benjamin B. Stevens, general manager for Klaw & Erlanger and one of the most widely known and popular men in the
theatrical business in this country, was stricken with apoplexy in New York and
died a few minutes later.

EVANGELIST HAMILTON TALKS TO THE POINT

His Discourses in the Tabernacle Full of Profit

One of the largest crowds during
the entire series of meetings at the Glen Richey meetings greeted the evangelist in the tabernacle Thursday evening. Over 600 persons were present. Prof. Leonard's solo was entitled "The Old-Fashioned Faith."

Evangelist Hamilton chose as his subject "Hell." Among other things
he said:

"Will a just God send a man to hell?" No; a just God will not, but an unjust man, with some, or reason,
or decency, will send himself there.
We will go to the place we are fitted for. Some people will go home
to the upper glory and those of a baser
nature will be confined in the lower
bogs of the bottomless pit.

I do not believe there is a man
down in the pit with a pair of tongs
trying to keep up a corn cob fire, but I hope to show you before I get through that I have a clear conception of what hell is like.

"The rich man's hell consisted of
first, in what he saw; second, in
what he heard; third, in what he
desired; fourth, in what he remembered." Under these headlines the evangelist recounted some of the experiences of life which paralleled the descriptions in the New Testament
of everlasting retribution. He appealed to his hearers, on the argument of probability, if for no other reason, to accept the gospel invitation.

Some eight or ten persons came forward at the close of the service and
a short prayer meeting was held
after the sermon.

The subject for tonight will be
"Eternity."

Will Play State College.

team.

Her Brother Killed.

Frank Smith, brother of Mrs. E. T.
Pooler, of Clearfield, was killed by falling down an elevator shaft at one of the school buildings in Altoona Wednesday. Mr. Smith was in charge of the building as janitor.

Ex-Governor Sulzer's Graft
Hunter Stirs Up Campaign.

HIS SERIOUS ACCUSATIONS.

Intimates That Judge McCall Paid
$35,000 For Nomination—Says Only Way He Can Prove His Case Is to Go
in the Courts and Place Witnesses Before Grand Jury.

New York, Oct. 24.—Action within a short time in the controversy between Edward E. McCall, the Tammany candidate for mayor of this city, and John Hennessy, who was William Sulzer's
agent, appears to be inevitable. Judge McCall has openly stated that he has been slandered, vilified and lied about by Hennessy.

"If I've been lying about McCall,"
said Hennessy in a speech, "let him
try to prove it. The only way I can conclusively prove what I say about McCall is to get him in a court of law, where he can be put under oath. If he is anxious for that test I'll promise to libel him in any way he desires so that he may start a criminal suit. He can't take action any too quickly to
suit me."

Hennessy also charged that Samuel
A. Beardsley, the agent of the late Anthony N. Brady, gave Charles F. Murphy $25,000 in cash last fall that was not accounted for on the list of contributions furnished to the secretary of state by Treasurer McLean of the state Democratic committee. He defies Murphy to say he did not get Beardsley's $25,000, which Sulzer says
he refused to take.

Hennessy in his speech, brought Charles F. Murphy still further in the limelight. He told the 2,000 persons who heard him speak in Sulzer's Harlem Casino that he had seen a note
for $35,000 signed by another supreme court justice. And he added that this $35,000 note had been signed this year.

Wants to Indict Sulzer.

Were it not for the fear that anything savoring of persecution of Sulzer would help him at this time Tam-
many wouldn't hesitate a minute about having him indicted for offenses charged
in his impeachment. In fact, the Tammany bosses may find it necessary
to take some drastic action if Sulzer
keeps on stirring up the east side.

The graft hunter under Governor
Sulzer had still another story to tell.
It had to do with the testimony of Duncan W. Peck, state superintendent of public works, who testified before
the court of impeachment that Sulzer
had asked him "to forget" that he had made a campaign contribution to the governor.

Efforts to Suppress Sale of Suffragette in New York.

New York, Oct. 24.—Police Commissioner Waldo began an investigation of the sale of the Suffragette, the millions' paper which was sold by young girls at Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst's meeting in Madison Square Garden
Tuesday night. The commissioner detailed Lieutenant Kerb, who is in charge of one of the squads at head quarters, to visit the suffrage headquarters in the city and other places where the paper might be on sale and
try to purchase a copy.

Lieutenant Kerb was also instructed
to gather what information he could
about those who are offering the paper
for sale and to find out if any attempt
is being made to publish the paper in
New York. While Commissioner Waldo knows that the paper at present is being published in France and copied
to this country, he believes it possible that an attempt may be made to publish it in New York if the demand for the paper should exhaust the supply brought over from France.

Commissioner Waldo said that as soon as Lieutenant Kerb has made his report copies of the Suffragette and
what other evidence has been gathered
would be submitted to Chief Magistrate McAdoo. Mr. Waldo does not know whether or not warrants can be issued, but he said that Magistrate Mc-Adoo would decide that question.

ANNUAL BANQUET OF SUSQUEHANNA LODGE

Splendid Menu and Eloquent
Addresses on Program

Susquehanna lodge, No. 96 F & A.
M., of Clearfield, held its second annual banquet in the lodge rooms
on Reed street Thursday evening.
About 60 persons were present to par-
take of the good things set before them and listen to addresses. An excellent menu was served and the banqueters partook with relish of
the inviting viands and relishes.

Addresses were made by Prof. H.
Linger, of Altoona, Rev. O. T. Da-
via of Lewisburg, and District Grand Deputy Daniel Keith, of Altoona, all
of whom were listened to with great attention.

Members of the order were present
from DuBois, Punxsutawney, Cur-wensville and Philipsburg. At a late hour the banqueters left for their homes, declaring the affair the best
that they had ever participated in.

Returned to His Home.

Newton Fisher, who left Clearfield 20 years ago and who is located in North Carolina, accompanied the body of his mother Mrs. M. A. Livington from the South this week.
Mr. Fisher left for his Southern home today. He is now a singer with a noted evangelist and was at one time
with Sam Jones.

Grand Jury Finds True Bill
Against Prisoner.

JEROME WINS BIG POINT.

Governor of New Hampshire Will Be Asked to Order Slayer of Sanford White Sent Back to New York—De-
fense Pleaded That Insane Man Couldn't Be Guilty of Conspiracy.

New York, Oct. 24.—Harry K. Thaw, slayer of Stanford White, was indicted
by a grand jury of the supreme court
on a charge of conspiracy in connection with his escape from Matteawan.
On this indictment the governor of New Hampshire will be asked to send Thaw back to New York state.

Bench warrants were issued for Richard Butler, Michael O'Keefe, Roger Thompson and Edward Duffy, the
chauffeurs, charging them with aiding
in the conspiracy by which Thaw made
his escape.

Under the designation of Governor Glynn the jury began an investigation into charges of conspiracy.

Counsel for Thaw maintained the inquiry should not be made because Thaw has been adjudged legally insane
and therefore could not be indicted on
a charge of conspiracy. Their contention was combated by William Traversers Jerome, who has been appointed
a special deputy attorney-general.

The special object of the inquiry, it
is said, was to procure the indictment of Thaw for use in the extradition proceedings in New Hampshire. Jerome had summoned more than twenty persons to testify before the grand jury.

Interest in the case was divided between this city and Concord. Thaw
has received a letter from his chief attorney, ex-Governor William A.
Stone of Pennsylvania, hinting at possible strong arm methods that may be used by Jerome and the New York
forces in the event that Governor Felker fails to issue an order of extradition.

Attorney Stone told Thaw he had discovered what might be a Jerome
plot to seize Thaw in Concord with Pittsburgh gangsters.

JOKES AS DEATH NEARS.

Man Who Took Bichloride Tablet in Happy Frame of Mind.

New York, Oct. 24.—With certain
death awaiting him at the end of a few more days Isaac Levy, the clothing
merchant who accidentally swallowed
four bichloride of mercury tablets in
his Brooklyn home on Sunday night,
jokes and smiles at the prospect of what he believes to be a quick and
sure recovery.

He still refuses to take seriously the death sentence which Dr. Jacob Sarnoff tells him is inevitable and talks
hopefully of the day when he shall be
on his feet again a well man.

Levy's condition is unchanged. The poison in his system is gradually working its way into his kidneys. Dr. Sarnoff said that its effect upon the kidneys could already be noticed and that
days before the mercury will have destroyed them.

DEATH PUT OFF FOR DINNER

Murderer Got Three Hours' Respite
From Gallows at Own Request.

Somerset, Pa., Oct. 24.—Death on the gallows was postponed three hours
here by a chicken dinner when John Maus, former coachman for Harry K.
Thaw, got a respite that he might
partake of a good meal.

Maus, who killed a mail carrier, Harrison Brown, while robbing him, was to have been hanged at 10 o'clock. He had been shamming insanity, but stopped long enough to ask for a good dinner. The sheriff at once postponed the execution until 1 o'clock, and a fat
fowl went into the pot.

FORETOLD HIS DEATH.

Asiologist Passes Away Seven Hours
After Time He Had Predicted.

Baltimore, Oct. 24.—Joseph West-
kam, sixty-five years old, a student of astrology, told his daughter, Mrs. W.
C. Seifried, several weeks ago that he believed he would die before sundown
on Oct. 22. He died a little over seven hours after the time he had predicted.
Westkam had been ill for several months. Three days ago his condition became critical.

Whirled Around by Wheel, Unhurt.
Chilfide, N. J., Oct. 24.—David Carroll got his clothing caught in a fly-
wheel in a power house at Edgewater
and was whirled around till his clothing came off. He was not hurt.

The Weather.

Unsettled and probably rain, moderate
easterly winds.

AN EIGHT HOUR DAY

Workingmen Urged to Vote for Proposed Amendment.

Patrick Gilday, president of District No. 2, U. M. W. A., urges every workingman in the district to vote
for the amendment to the state constitution providing for the enactment
of a law making eight hours a legal
day's work on all public works, whether done by the state, county or
city.

President Gilday says that the adoption of this amendment is of
vast importance to the workingmen
of Pennsylvania, and that all laborers
who wish to improve their condition
should support the amendment by voting "yes" in the square to the right of the words: "The general assembly shall not pass any local or special law, etc."

SOOTHES ARGENTINA.

Roosevelt Denies Rating Brazil First in
His Speech at Bahia.

Buenos Aires, Oct. 24.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt's Bahia speech has aroused the people of the Argentine republic. They object strongly to his declaration that the United States
must be paramount in North America
and Brazil in South America since they are the richest and greatest countries on the continent.

His cable denying that he made the statement attributed to him has just become public and is beginning to soothe the feelings of the people of this country.

off housecleaning until next year.

A ONE TERM CANDIDATE.

Among the other reasons why Oscar Mitchell should be elected is the fact that, if elected, he will not ask for a second term. Mr. Mitchell will be satisfied with ten years of service on the bench, and at the end of his term, would be willing to give other members of the bar in Clearfield county a chance to enjoy the honors and emoluments of the office. There are quite a number of attorneys in this county, any one of whom would give entire satisfaction as an occupant of the bench, and Mr. Mitchell, when his term had expired, would not stand in the way of any other candidate.

The term of judge is ten years. The lawyer who is forty or fifty years of age stands a very poor chance of becoming judge in the county where two terms are given one man. Those who feel that one term, with a big salary, should be enough for any man, no matter what his qualifications, look with favor upon the candidacy of Oscar Mitchell, who will not ask a second term, if elected. In the minds of many people the one-term issue is a most important one, and this is why the vote for Oscar Mitchell will be much larger than his opponents imagine.

There are thousands of citizens of Clearfield county who pray that the liquor traffic may be driven out of the county. These people believe that crime, degeneracy, poverty and insanity are due to the excessive use of intoxicating liquors. It is certain that if no alcoholic drinks were sold in Clearfield county there would be more happy homes and less misery and destitution. Therefore, the people, who know the evils which flow from the use of liquors pray that the day may come when no more whiskey or beer is sold in the county.

Oscar Mitchell is pledged to aid in the work of reducing the number of places at which intoxicating drinks may be had. He promises to refuse to grant licenses to wholesale liquor dealers and to act in accordance with a majority of the citizens in the districts of the county relative to liquor licenses for hotels and saloons. If a hotel or saloon is not necessary in a community it will not be granted a license, should Mr. Mitchell be on the bench in this county. As judge, therefore, Mr. Mitchell would be willing to meet the wishes of those citizens who pray that the liquor license traffic may be destroyed.

In praying for the overthrow of the drink evil the people should not forget that praying alone will not accomplish this, to them, desired end. If they will vote as they pray, however, they will aid very materially in reducing the number of places where drink may be procured and thus remove to a great extent the temptations which now beset the young men who would not indulge in intoxicating drinks to their physical and mental harm. The watchword should be "vote as you pray," but the people who pray should not neglect or forget to vote for Oscar Mitchell.

Citizens of Clearfield should attend the good roads meeting in the court house this evening. There may be a difference of opinion regarding the advisability of authorizing the state to borrow fifty million dollars to build new highways, but no citizen is so well informed upon the subject that he cannot glean further information upon the matter. At the meeting tonight Charles E. Foote, who knows all about road making, will tell what it is proposed to do with the money that will be derived from the issuing of road bonds, and his address should be heard by the citizens of this county.

There is strong opposition to the bond issue among the grangers and others, and if Mr. Foote is able to explain away the causes of this opposition he will be able to convert many voters to his way of thinking. At any rate it will be well for citizens to attend this meeting and learn just what the state highway department is expected to do with this fifty million dollars which it is proposed to raise by a bond issue which the people are expected to approve at the November election. There is need of reliable information on the subject in order that the people may vote intelligently upon the proposed amendments to the state constitution authorizing the issue of bonds for good roads purposes.

Burgess Woodward is waiting for an official copy of the new automobile law, and promises to enforce its provisions as soon as he discovers what these are. There's some encouragement in that statement at any rate.

Oscar Mitchell is the only candidate for judge who has a real platform. And his platform is a good one for good people to stand upon.

Earle G. Boose asks the voters to elect him district attorney because he is competent and will conduct the affairs of the office in a satisfactory manner.

The Coming Maude.

Maude Muller one day, eating fudge, looked up and saw the county judge.

Maude was a pretty girl, all right. His honor fell in love at sight.

And when about a month had fled Maude promised that the judge should wed.

Then over the judge's pathway came a wealthy, proud and stately dame.

The judge then for ambition's sake Poor little Maude resolved to shake.

An ardent suitor came Maude, Chalewoman of the county board.

"I'll get square," Maude said, "without fail."

So told her party her sad tale.

Judge had elected been in fall; In spring they voted his recall.

The haughty dame refused to wed. "You are no longer judge," she said.

"Don't monkey with a suitor yet!"

Amazing Disrespect.

The reigning bore in Edinburg at one time was Professor L., and his favorite subject was the north pole. One day he met Jeffrey in a narrow lane and began instantly to talk of the north pole. Jeffrey in despair and out of all patience darted past him, exclaiming, "Hang the north pole!" Shortly after Professor L., boiling over with indignation, met Sydney Smith "Oh, my dear fellow," said Sydney "never mind! No one minds what Jeffrey says, you know. He is a privileged person. He respects nothing—absolutely nothing. Why, you will scarcely credit it, but it is not more than a week since I heard him speak disrespectfully of the equator!"

Advertiser's Aim Is Satisfaction

By HOLLAND.

ONE of the biggest retail merchants in the world, with stores in two of America's largest cities, and who naturally is one of the largest advertisers in the world, insists that his advertisement writers confine themselves to strict truth, and any promise made by one of his clerks is considered to have been made personally by the head of the firm.

A woman bought a fine tablecloth, and after she had it home there was a slight imperfection found. It was nothing to affect the wear of the tablecloth, but she took it back, explaining that she had paid a high price for the article and that she had intended it for her "best." She was somewhat apologetic for returning a purchase with such a slight imperfection.

"You are a stranger in this city?" asked the floorwalker, and the woman nodded. "I thought so," he said. "You do not understand our system. Had you kept that tablecloth you would have done yourself and us an injustice. When you buy here you must be satisfied. If you are dissatisfied for any reason you are not fair to us unless you tell us and give us a chance to satisfy you."

That spirit is behind big advertisers everywhere. It is another reason for doing business with advertisers.

HYMN OF THE EARLY CHRISTIANS.

The rising sun bids us awake
And prayer to our Creator make.
Benedicamus Domino!

His hand hath kept us through the night
And led us safely to the light.
Benedicamus Domino!

Our tongues restrain we through the day
That, blameless, they at eve may pray.
Benedicamus Domino!

Our thoughts contain, our senses guard
We serve the vineyard of the Lord.
Benedicamus Domino!

All worldly appetites repress
And ever our Creator bless,
Benedicamus Domino!

Thus, daylight passed, to God on high Once more with hallowed lips we cry.
Benedicamus Domino!

Mr. Hennessy asserted that he had held in his hand a note for $5,000 which he intended was the price paid by Mr. McCall for his nomination as a candidate for the judgeship.

A Professional Love Letter Writer.
In the American Magazine appears under the title "A Handy Man With the Pen" the confession of a man who is a professional writer of love letters after dinner speeches, obituary poetry, etc. The following is one of the stories he tells about writing love letters for a customer.

"One day last fall a handsome young man much embarrassed appeared and after some hesitation confessed that he had neglected his education and was corresponding with a young woman with whom he was very much in love. She was a college graduate and he desired to have his letters as well written as hers were so he wanted me to write them. I advised him to write simply and as he talked but he persisted and twice a week he came, informed me concisely and briefly what he wanted to say to her and I wrote the letters into them. He copied the letters himself, blushing frequently as he read what I had added in the way of sentiment. That young lady received some of the most wonderful love letters ever written. They were married during the winter."

Bengali and Its Language.
The people of Bengal number seventy millions and boast of perhaps the best culture in India at the present time. The language as a written language is only fifty years old. Though for over a thousand years it has been a dialect, there is in Indian history unfortunately no trace of Bengali having been an important literary tongue. The language originates from Sanskrit the mother tongue from which every other Indian language has borrowed its alphabet, grammar and vocabulary but unlike others Bengali never shrinks from gathering new materials. There are numerous Persian, French, Arabic and English words incorporated in it and the wonder of it is that, instead of having been degraded into some vulgar form like pidgin English, Bengali has become the most literary, scientific and perhaps the most philosophic of modern Indian languages. — Argonaut.

THE IDLE RICH.

The human scrap pile for which we have to pay is cluttered up, not alone with the paupers and the down and outs, but with the idle rich, who sit around luxurious hotels and watering places with nothing to do but overeat and sleep. I was astounded by the waste of human energy at the county institutions, but I am appalled when I think of that far greater waste of energy among those whose wants have been provided for and who have nothing to do but dress for dinner. We have 2,500 persons sitting with folded hands in our county institutions, content because their wants have been provided for. I could not help thinking of our wealthy outcasts in this connection. They are really beyond the pale of human effort, for they are doing nothing that is of good to anybody, not even to themselves. The idle wealthy are going on the scrap pile voluntarily. They are not only useless, but harmful. Somebody ought to wake them up and make them think. And this waste can be found at most any fashionable resort east and west. If we had a little help from those who can give help it might solve a lot of problems that put the poor wards of the county where they are. — President A. A. McCormick of Board of Charity Chicago.

No Reason to Work.

A large, slouchy colored man went shuffling down the road whistling like a lark. His clothes were ragged, and his shoes were out at the toes and heels, and he appeared to be in the depths of poverty for all his mirth.

As he passed a prosperous looking house a man stepped from the doorway and hailed him.

"Hey, Jim! I got a job for you. Do you want to make a quarter?"

"No," said the ragged one. "I done got a quarter." — Washington Star.

NEW YORK STOCKS.

Following London's Lead, Issues Decline Sharply at Opening.

New York, Oct. 21.—The speculative tone and price changes of the early trading were again ruled by the force of the London market before our opening. Declines reported in London were followed here with a substantial lowering of prices in the initial dealings, and the action of the market caused a further increase of confidence in those committed on the bear side.

A dragging tendency prevailed all through the first hour. London was a seller all through the list of international issues, the supply from the market being estimated at about 20,000 shares in the first half hour, and there was at the same time evidence of liquidation of speculative lines by houses with up-town connections. Brokers concerned in the trading said that the supply from both sources was easily absorbed. In government United States registered advanced one-eighth point, and the coupon is and registered and coupon 4 rose one-half point. Railway and other bonds were steady.

The tone held steady all through the late forenoon, there being an absence of pressure, which marked the initial dealing. Transactions, however, were almost wholly between professional room traders, and the slight price changes were without importance. Covering by the speculative element on the floor in small amounts was sufficient to hold prices firm at the range prevailing at the end of the first hour, but quotations generally were still substantially under yesterday's final figures.

HOPE FOR 200 MEN BURIED IN A MINE

Rescue Forces by Hard Work Bring Out Twenty-three Alive.

Dawson, N. M., Oct. 24.—More than 200 men were still entombed in shaft No. 2 of the Stago Canyon mine of Phelps, Dodge & Co. following the explosion that trapped them in the depths of the workings. Fourteen bodies were recovered during the night. The twenty-third living victim was found at the depth of a mile in the workings and taken out unconscious.

Indications were that the first aid corps, working under the direction of J. B. Morrow, would reach the majority of the day shift, which was caught in the cave-in.

Hope was strong that the great fans that have been driven overnight would have diluted the gas so that the imprisoned men might be found alive.

Opinions as to the cause of the explosion differ. It was first asserted that black damp ignited and exploded. Later it developed that at this time of year the mines in the adjacent southern district of Colorado become dangerous from the prevalence of coal dust, which no amount of water seems able to keep under control, and led to the belief that the same condition might have caused the disaster here.

During the all night fight with the debris the rescuers penetrated to the fourteenth level, about a mile into the side of Black Mountain, and they were yet far from the more than 200 remaining victims. The twenty-three who were rescued before daylight were picked up along the levels in ones and twos and could only point the way onward to the depths for the rescuers.

The federal rescue train which started from Denver is due here. Another is coming from Rock Springs, Wyo., and a third from Pittsburg, Kan. Before they arrive, however, it is expected the volunteer rescuers organized here will have reached the entombed men.

A Busy Street.
Willie Daisel, the old shepherd, had retired at last from active service after spending the whole of his life in a little cottage away at the back of the hill, a full three miles as the crow flies from the nearest road. He moved into a house near the head of the valley above Cranberry Howe, situated on the side of the lonely road. But Willie was not quite happy. He was distracted. He was worried by the traffic. He told a friend that there was no peace in this bit for an old body. "Three bicycles and a cart in the same day! Well, it's a fair toon!"—Manchester Guardian.

CHRISTABEL PANKHURST

Author of Articles in Suffrage Organ Which May Be Suppressed Here.

Steps to stop the sale of the Suffragette, the English militants' official organ, were expected in New York city. The paper is edited by Miss Christabel Pankhurst, daughter of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the leader now in America. Some of the articles are said to be too bold in dealing with several questions. The organ has been suppressed in England and is now being published in France. An official concerned in the contemplated action to suppress the paper in America said that he had glanced over several pages, and the contents were absolutely vile.

Unlike Meet.
Wayne—Chester is about one of the oddest men I ever saw. Payne—How so? Wayne—Why, when a fellow borrows a quarter and doesn't pay it back Chester finally admits that it is the quarter he cares about and not the principle of the thing.—Exchange.

Babies and Clothes.

According to a London specialist, if white clothing for babies could be abolished, in a generation there would be a 20 per cent decrease in the number of persons with defective eyes.
